

Annabel Rodriguez

Associate

arodriguez@verrill-law.com

Annabel represents clients in all stages of litigation in federal and state courts, arbitrations and government investigations.

Her practice focuses on government investigations, matters involving the False Claims Act, Anti-Kickback Statute, the Stark Law, the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations (“RICO”) Act, drug crimes, and public corruption offenses.

Annabel is a graduate of Boston University and Suffolk University Law School. Upon graduation, she served first as a law clerk for Associate Justice Mary Thomas Sullivan at the Appeals Court, and then as a law clerk for the Honorable William Young of the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts.

Outside of the office, Annabel actively contributes to the legal community as the Vice President of the Massachusetts Chapter of the Federal Bar Association, previously serving as Treasurer and National Delegate.

Education

- Suffolk University Law School (J.D.)
- Boston University

Public Service

- President-elect, Massachusetts Chapter of the Federal Bar Association

Bar Admissions

- Massachusetts

Memberships

- Boston Bar Association

Services/Industries

- Health Care & Life Sciences
- White Collar Defense & Government Enforcement

Honors

- Received the Excellence in Pro Bono award from Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly

To learn more about third-party ratings and rankings, and the selection processes used for inclusion, click here.

Clerkships

- Law clerk for Associate Justice Mary Thomas Sullivan at the Appeals Court
- Law clerk for the Honorable William Young of the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts