

Audrey J. Alberts

Paralegal

aalberts@verrill-law.com

Audrey joined the firm as a paralegal in 2015, with a focus in domestic relations. Audrey has extensive experience working closely with clients for more than 20 years in the preparation of financial statements and discovery responses.

Audrey assists the Family Law Group with preparing all necessary documents during each phase of a divorce and post-judgment, including all aspects of trial preparation. Prior to her arrival, Audrey had experience working with well-known family law attorneys in Boston and Wellesley. She continues in this tradition with Verrill.

Audrey attended the University of Massachusetts and received her paralegal certification from Newbury College.

Outside the office, Audrey enjoys spending time with her family, especially her daughter, Tori. Audrey volunteers monthly with Dress for Success in Boston, where she assists women in achieving economic independence by providing professional attire in preparation for job interviews.

Education

- University of Massachusetts, Boston
- Newbury College (Paralegal Certificate)

Services/Industries

- Family Law
- Individuals & Families