

Clayton Brite

Associate

cbrite@verrill-law.com

Clayton represents clients in a variety of real estate matters, including commercial lending, solar energy, and title issues. Clayton advises lenders, borrowers, developers, landlords, and tenants in a broad range of commercial transactions.

Prior to joining Verrill, Clayton worked at a boutique real estate law firm which specialized in a variety of commercial and residential real estate matters. Clayton is a graduate of Northeastern University, with a Bachelor of Science in Accounting, and Boston College Law School. While in law school, Clayton served in the Civil Litigation Clinic, where he represented indigent clients.

Clayton also practices before the Massachusetts Land Court where he has successfully submitted and obtained approval of S-Petitions, Complaints for New Certificates and other complex matters before the Court.

Outside of the office, Clayton is an avid golfer and hockey fan. As an alumnus of Northeastern University, Clayton enjoys attending the Huskies games and cheering on his alma mater.
