

Grady Hogan

Associate

ghogan@verrill-law.com

Grady brings a pragmatic and diligent methodology to regulatory and environmental matters at the federal, state, and municipal levels.

As a member of the Environment, Telecommunications, and Natural Resources Group, Grady ensures clients receive critical and comprehensive legal services relating to their regulatory compliance, permitting, enforcement defense, environmental litigation, and land use needs.

During law school, Grady worked as a Student Attorney at the Refugee and Human Rights Clinic representing clients in asylum and special immigrant juvenile status matters. His experience also includes legal internships with the Office of the Maine Attorney General and the City of Portland's Corporation Counsel. Grady was a member of the Maine Law Review and his case note, Avangrid Networks, Inc. v. Secretary of State, was published in Volume 73, No. 2. After graduating from law school Grady clerked for the Honorable Wayne Douglas, Richard Mulhern, and James Martemucci of the Maine Superior Court.

When not working, Grady can be found running, surfing, biking, or canoeing one of Maine's many rivers.

Education

- University of Maine School of Law (J.D., summa cum laude)
 - Faculty Scholastic Achievement Award
 - Teaching Fellow, Civil Procedure, Constitutional Law
- Bates College (B.A.)

Bar Admissions

- Maine

Services/Industries

- Environmental & Land Use
- Energy