

Lisa Waddell

Paralegal

lwaddell@verrill-law.com

Lisa brings years of experience as a paralegal. She primarily focuses on bankruptcy, collection, and litigation, where she assists attorneys in preparing and drafting legal documents, managing case files, and supporting all aspects of discovery.

Lisa's extensive background in bankruptcy law includes handling Chapter 13, 12, 11, and 7 cases, creditor rights, and case management from inception through resolution.

Before joining Verrill, Lisa was a paralegal at a prominent Portland law firm, where she developed a reputation for her meticulous attention to detail, organizational skills, and ability to thrive in fast-paced, high-pressure environments. Her experience spans a broad range of legal matters, including civil litigation, statutory power of sale foreclosure, and collections, making her a versatile asset to any legal team.

Lisa is recognized for her strong work ethic, reliability, and commitment to delivering high-quality support to attorneys and clients. She is adept at managing multiple priorities, meeting tight deadlines, and ensuring that every aspect of a case is handled efficiently and accurately.

Outside of the office, Lisa enjoys spending time with her family and is passionate about outdoor activities, reading, and exercising. She is also actively involved in her community, volunteering for her children's sports teams and local organizations.
