

Margaret Capp Fitzgerald

Associate

mfitzgerald@verrill-law.com

Margaret focuses her practice on civil litigation, where she uses her research and writing skills to provide thoughtful and practical guidance to her clients. She advises clients in a wide range of subject areas and has experience navigating complex discovery disputes.

Prior to joining Rackemann, Sawyer and Brewster, which merged with Verrill in 2022, Margaret worked as a litigation associate for a general practice firm in Boston. During law school, she interned with the Middlesex County District Attorney's Office and the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Massachusetts.

Margaret lives in Hingham with her husband and daughter. Outside of work, she enjoys spending time with her family and is an avid runner and crossword enthusiast.

Education

- Franklin & Marshall College (B.A., cum laude)
 - Government and French
- Boston College Law School (J.D.)
 - Executive Articles Editor and Staff Writer, Boston College Environmental Affairs Law Review

Bar Admissions

- Massachusetts

Honors

- Public Interest Designation Fellow
- Certificate of Pro Bono Excellence
- Listed in The Best Lawyers in America: Ones to Watch® under Insurance Law in Boston, Massachusetts (2024)
- Selected by peers as Rising Star by Massachusetts Super Lawyers®,

Services/Industries

- Litigation & Trial

under Insurance Coverage

To learn more about third-party ratings and rankings, and the selection processes used for inclusion, click here.

Court and Other Admissions

- United States District Court, District of Massachusetts