Molly Strabley

Associate

mstrabley@verrill-law.com

Molly applies her discipline, practicality, and strong record of being a team player to help clients, both big and small, at all stages of their existence, from start-up through acquisition.

Prior to joining Verrill, Molly worked as an intern for Legal Services for Children in San Francisco, served as a law clerk with a midsize firm, and completed the Summer Associate program at Verrill.

Prior to law school, Molly worked at a New England Boarding School as an Associate Director of the Annual Fund, a coach of many sports, and a dorm parent. Molly also played two years of professional hockey, one in Switzerland, in the SWHL, and one in the States, in the PWHPA. In college, Molly played four seasons on the Varsity Women's Ice Hockey Team, winning an Ivy League Championship, and making an appearance in the Final Eight of the NCAA Championship.

While not in the office, Molly enjoys spending time outdoors, at the gym, or on the ocean in Maine. Molly loves sports, cooking, and spending time with family and friends.
