Nate, the firm's Corporate Specialist, assists with a wide range of transactions and filings for corporations, LLCs, nonprofit entities, and other clients.

Nate received his law degree from Santa Clara University School of Law in 2014 and is admitted to the bar in Maine. Before joining Verrill in 2016, he worked as a corporate governance analyst at a stock market indexing company. Following his graduation from Wheaton College with a B.A. in economics, he was a legal research analyst at a prominent New England bank.

Nate manages the firm's extensive corporate database and related database software, and is responsible for assisting clients with minute books, stockholder lists, and other important records. His practice includes due diligence activities, regulatory compliance matters, drafting of submissions to government agencies, and legal research on a wide range of topics. He serves as a principal liaison between the firm's clients and the records clerks at Secretary of State offices in Maine, other New England states, and Delaware. He also prepares and submits securities law filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and with state securities administrators.

Nate is a native of Freeport, Maine, and enjoys being outdoors, fishing, and spending time with his wife, friends, and family.
