

Peyton Sternfeld

Associate

psternfeld@verrill-law.com

Peyton applies her critical thinking skills and attention to detail while addressing clients complex insurance-related matters.

As a member of Verrill's Business Law group, Peyton supports Partners in providing clients with comprehensive, methodical, and individually tailored legal services with their insurance-related needs.

While in law school, Peyton interned with the Honorable Judge Allison D. Burroughs of the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts and at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Massachusetts in the Criminal Division. In addition to her internships, she served as a teaching assistant for Constitutional Law and the First Year Writing Skills course. These experiences deepened her understanding of the legal system.

Peyton, originally from Michigan, is a loyal Michigan Wolverines and Detroit Lions fan. Now settled in Boston, Peyton enjoys trying new restaurants and exploring the city with her dog, Pippin.

Education

- Northeastern University School of Law (J.D.)
 - Senior Editor, Northeastern University Law Review
- University of Michigan (B.A., summa cum laude)
 - Phi Beta Kappa, Academic Honor Society

Bar Admissions

- Massachusetts

Services/Industries

- Business Law
- Corporate Governance & Board Advisory